Dutchess County Young Republican Club Honored Club of the Year

HYDE PARK, NY - The Dutchess County Young Republican Club was awarded the honor of "County Club of the Year" by the New York State Young Republican Club at their annual convention last weekend. The award, issued once a year, recognizes a club within New York State that stands out from the rest and demonstrates exceptional leadership.

The DCYR's has a record number of members who serve as elected officials, and official appointments throughout Dutchess County, with even more intending to run for office this year!

"We are very humbled to have been chosen for this award and are proud of our achievements over the past year" said Stephen Reverri, Chairman of the DCYR Club. Mr. Reverri continued "through education and experience, we allow our members to get the feel of what's involved in the political process. Each member has the opportunity to explore all facets of government and what each position entails."

Giovanni Scaringi, Chairman of the New York State Young Republican club, said "the DCYRS are the model club for the state YR's. Utilizing education, innovation, and fun into a political club has been a winning recipe in Dutchess County."

The Dutchess County Young Republicans is a network of Young Professionals who share a common philosophy of proven Republican principles. We work in all industries but share a belief that Dutchess County is a great place to live due to the decades of Republican leadership. We vote and are involved because we want the future to be just as bright. Some of us will run for office, others will work on campaigns - but no matter what role we get together to help make a difference in our communities.
